1. The Barth (N 55/P 25) airfield was unoccupied on 20 December 1949. The landing field was in poor condition but the E-W runway was intact. The field could be made serviceable in a short time. Off-limits warning signs were posted by the local kommandatura.

2. The field, though serviceable, was unoccupied on 21 December 1949. There was a runway. The previously observed clearing work on ruined buildings had been stopped. Some allotment gardens were established on the eastern edge of the field. Three undamaged buildings on the edge of the field were occupied by refugees.
